Bio

Kim Switnicki has been the 'go-to girl' for sexuality questions, concerns and help for over 25 years. She is an international speaker, sex educator, and coach who has helped thousands of women have a deeper connection with their bodies, have the passionate sex they crave and experience the deeply satisfying relationships they deserve. Kim has been quoted in national newspapers and featured on international interviews & podcasts.

She is the author of "G-Spot PlayGuide: 7 Simple Steps to G-Spot Heaven!", an inter-active guide for discovering your inner sensuality. She also produced "Freedom from your Leaky Bladder", a sexual health DVD, CD, and workbook program to help women rid themselves of incontinence transforming not only their enjoyment of life and relationships, but their intimacy as well.

Her education includes counseling, coaching, and sex therapy. She is a Sex & Intimacy Coach internationally accredited by the International Coach Federation.

Through her website, <http://lionessforlovers.com>, she offers tele-seminars, articles, products, and other resources to help you reach your sexual potential therefore transforming your entire life!

She lives and enjoys the rain on beautiful Vancouver Island, BC, Canada with her husband and two cats.

Kim is not for the woman who has everything but for the woman who knows there's more!
